

1949 Studebaker Champion Starlight

Lutz, Florida

The avant-garde styling of the Studebaker Starlight Coupe was controversial right from the start. The unique four-piece wraparound rear window looked like a backward windshield and became the butt of jokes. However, our Pick of the Day has become a desired find in modern times.

Read More About This Car